Friday Book Club
Friday, June 5 @ 10am
This month’s selection, The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd, follows Hetty "Handful" Grimke, a Charleston slave, and Sarah, the daughter of the wealthy Grimke family. The novel begins on Sarah's eleventh birthday, when she is given ownership over Handful, who is to be her handmaid. The Invention of Wings follows the next thirty-five years of their lives. Inspired in part by the historical figure of Sarah Grimke (a feminist, suffragist and, importantly, an abolitionist), Kidd allows herself to go beyond the record to flesh out the inner lives of all the characters, both real and imagined. New members are always welcome.

Florida Writers Association
Saturday, June 20 @ 10am
Award winning author, Elizabeth Sinclair, will present “Dialogue” and “How it Works.” Dialogue is the voice of the characters as they actively engage in conversation within the story. Each character’s voice should be distinctive, a personal signature strong enough to be heard in the reader’s mind. But writing effective dialogue is not as easy as it sounds. We’ll be covering all of the above, as well as punctuation, should you or should you not use dialect, stimulus and response, tagging the dialogue, and much more. When we’re done, you’ll have your characters conversing in a way that will hold your reader’s interest throughout the book. This meeting is sponsored by the Ancient City Chapter of the Florida Writers Association and the Friends of the Main Library St. Augustine. All book sales benefit the Friends of the Library. All meetings are free and open to the public.

Join Ms. Anne and your friends at Family Storytime for stories, songs, dancing, shaky eggs, and more as we explore The Hero in You with stories about taking care of animals, our planet, each other, and ourselves. Come dressed as your favorite hero if you choose!

Teens vs. Adults "Trivia Throwdowns" (11 years and up)
Saturday, June 27 from 2 - 4pm
Who’s smarter: teens or adults? Find out at the Library! Ms. Anne (Youth Services Librarian) challenges teens (ages 11 - 17) to “Unmask” their smarts and adults to “Escape the Ordinary” by going head-to-head in a Trivia Throwdown using the wonderfully snarky video game You Don't Know Jack on our PlayStation 3! Snacks will be provided. Teens are encouraged to invite their favorite adults and other adults in the community are also very welcome to participate in this friendly competition featuring Team Teen and Team Adult! This program is generously sponsored by the Friends of the Ponte Vedra Beach Branch Library and our friends at Sony. Call the library at 827-6950 for more details.
